OUR BOTS

Hunter Bot

Overview

Introducing Our Solana Blockchain Hunter Bot – The Ultimate Tool for Finding New Tokens on Solana. Our state-of-the-art bot scours various dexes on the Solana blockchain to locate the newest tokens. It fetches live pairs from Dextools, then delivers the information straight to you through your TG channel. The notifications include essential tokenomics, token address, owner wallet address (V2), and Owner Info (V2). In our next version, we'll even include whether the owner has a good or bad wallet.

How It Works

Our bot utilizes the Dextool API to collect the latest token name from the most recent block on the Solana chain. It then fetches the token's information and utilizes the Solscan Pro API to obtain the owner's information.
